August 27, 1777. dear friend, Whether this finds you officially parading on Newmarket turfs--or in the happier society of the good geniuses of B House--may it find you well--in good joyous spirits--gay, debonair--happy at heart--happy as I have seen my meaning expressd in the countenance of my friend Mrs. C, where humanity--humility--and good-will--have outshone beauty--in one of the finest faces of your country--But this between ourselves: --and pray how does the aforesaid lady do--Does she ride, walk, and dance, with moderation--and can you tell me that she continues as well as when she first went down--and still finds good from her western expedition--And the little Syren Miss C--Have there no letters, sent by Cupids post, sticking on the arrows point, been picked up about your grounds, , blown by western breezes across the country--Tell her nothing can ever hurt her but Love and Time. --May Love bring her happiness, and Time honour!--As to wealth--may she have no more than she can manage with comfort and credit! Monsieur L s letter is a good one--and I think it would make one laugh even in the gout. --God bless his old boy--for he is a true type of beggarly pride--cunning--narrow-hearted--vain and mean--one of Satans dupes--who do his dirty work for a little worldly trasn--and cheat themselves at last. --I know a man who delights to make every one he can happy--that fame man treated some honest girls with expenses fora Vauxhall..
