The fact must be ascribed chiefly to the inadequate, and too often ignorant views on the subject entertained by those to whom is entrusted the education of the rising generation. As an able writer in Chambers Journal lately wrote: Few schools give much attention to Elocution. The vast number of boys and girls are merely expected to read their lessons, or repeat their verses, intelligibly not intelligently; no art, no expression of feeling and interest, is looked for from them. They are not taught to read to make a proper use of their voices; the ear is given no critical training. . . . Such...
