THERE S A MONSTER IN MY POPCORN

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Chuck Slemph (illustrator). 222 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.One should never underestimate the breadth of a child s imagination. From dreams of grandeur to fears of monsters lurking in unsuspecting places, a child s mind operates, in many ways, on a different level than adults. There s A Monster In My Popcorn provides an example of the power of the imagination while giving a riveting story about a little girl whose imagination runs wild. There s A Monster In My Popcorn depicts the events of a typical Saturday morning for any child: watching cartoons, crafts, coloring, and snack food. However, when her bowl of popcorn appears to be moving, young Claire s ordinary Saturday morning becomes filled with disorder, fear, and worry of a monster living on the inside of her popcorn bowl. I know it s probably big and green and fuzzy with two big eyes and two smelly feet just like I watch on TV, she exclaims. With the reassurance of her mother, Claire confronts the popcorn monster of her runaway imagination while revealing greater life truths. The story serves as a reminder, to children of all ages, that things are not always as bad as they might seem at first glance. Furthermore, it reveals important lessons that one can find joy and peace in each of life s stressful experiences.
