Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Every school boy remembers that sentence. Now for the Clodpole translation and commentary. Old Dobbin, the literary Bucephalus of the Author, allows no rider but his master, so stand back all ye musketo critics, quacks of the grey goose quill, (or duck s quill.) literary goslings, and long-eared editors, or my steed may chance to trample you in the mud or snort you into nonentity. Let it loose in the streets, parlors and counting-houses of the city, like a wild horse from the western prairies, without saddle, bridle, rein, whip, spur or martingale, all...
