Filled with action, suspense, danger, magic, and a little bit of love, THE CURE picks up where VAMPIRE INIQUITY left off. Just when Dan, Bruce, and Shen thought they could take some time to unwind and recover from their horrific ordeal with the mutant vampires in the Las Vegas den they destroyed, Bruce has an unexpected run in with werewolves outside his cabin in the hills of Owego, NY and is wounded. Now, instead of searching for vampires they're searching for a cure for Bruce before the werewolf affliction takes hold of his body permanently. Hearing about a paranormal group in Phoenix AZ that could possibly help them, they wasted no time boarding a plane. The mutant vampire den may have been destroyed, but Dracula's vampires are still out in full force. and they're looking for the vampire slayers by orders of Dracula! To add to their peril, they're forced to partner up with the local vampire leader to help them hunt for Bruce after he morphed into a werewolf and ran off into the desert mountains before a mystical high priestess was able to administer the cure. While roaming the caverns of the Arizona mountains Bruce meets up with Tatyana, a young woman who is running from the vampires. Fortunately for him she's no stranger to the occult and accepts him in both human and werewolf form. It's a bonus that she's able to communicate telepathically! Even though she vows to stay with him no matter what form he's in, she's in agreement with everyone that a cure would be the best for all. Would they get it into him in time?.
