The USPS is developing a compliance handbook. In addition, the MSPB has accomplished the following over the past five years: Made Office of Policy and Evaluation study reports available on the Internet; Began a major initiative to design and develop an integrated document management and workflow system that will include support and maintenance of imaged and electronic case records; Saved money through the significant increase in the number of video conferences used for hearings, settlements and conferences related to cases before MSPB, focus groups and related studies activities, and for other activities related to MSPB business; and Developed an Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Working Group. The Civil Service Reform Act also authorized the Board to conduct studies of the civil service and other merit systems in the Executive Branch and report to the President and Congress on whether the public interest in a civil service free of prohibited personnel practices is being adequately protected. Since 1997, the Board has published 15 reports by the Office of Program and Evaluation (OPE) staff as well as 20 editions of the Issues of Merit news-33 letter. The OPE staff also serves as a valuable resource for the Board in meeting internal agency research needs. For example, during FY 2001, OPE conducted a survey of appellants and their representatives, agency representatives, and MSPB administrative judges who participated in the pilot projects testing the use of video conferencing for hearings and the issuance of bench...
