A kentish Tale of Men and Manors tells the tale of the Downs from the earliest times. Through the prism of an ancient manor, in the heart of the Kentish Downs, we watch a cast of character playing out events which shaped out island history. Great historical events resonate in the bones of the hills. Equally, through the lives of the ordinary men and women, we see in microcosm what it was to live in a small village in the shadow of the Downs, swept by the tides of history, buffeted by the whims of Kings, Knights and Bishops. James Ballingall, a travel writer in his youth, has put down roots in the chalk Downs and in this book, charming illustrated by his sister, Anne Lever, offers an insight into this most fascinating corner of the country. Written in light-hearted vein it will be of interest to the casual or more serious reader alike.
