By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from An Appeal: To the People of North Carolina in Behalf of the Insane That Are Now Without Hospital Care in This State The Board of Public Charities of North Carolina, under a sense of the advisory responsibility imposed by the Constitution and statutes thereunder, desires to lay before the people the necessity of measures for the care of the insane, in addition to the provision now made by the State Hospitals at Raleigh, Morganton and Goldsboro. The facts to which public attention is requested have been definitely ascertained and considered carefully; the conclusions therefrom, and action urged, are believed to be needful to the welfare of the State, in the highest degree. The protection and comfort of the weak in any form, by the strong; the relief of the blind, deaf-mute, insane, feeble-minded, chronic invalid and helpless orphan is the chief glory and honor of all God-fearing people upon this earth. This burden, for burden it needs must be, is shared by every country, and grows with the advance of population. From various circumstances, so far as the insane are...
