Recorded Books on Brilliance Audio, 2015. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged. Language: English . Brand New. Though they ve lived their entire lives less than five blocks from each other, 15-year-olds Reuven Malter and Danny Saunders exist in very different worlds. Reuven blends easily into both his secular Jewish faith and his typical American teen life, while Danny s conservative Hasidic clothes and appearance make him stick out. When Danny almost blinds Reuven with a deliberately vicious line drive in a tumultuous softball game, the two boys are brought together and develop an improbable friendship. Struggling to live their own lives against the wishes of their strong-willed fathers, they give each other a shared strength--and a deeper understanding that the differences separating people through cultures and generations are not as great as they might seem.
