If we actually consider this to be the case, and further consider the specific gravities of bodies in their gaseous state to represent the number of volumes condensed into one; or, in other words, the number of the absolute weight of a single volume of the first matter which they contain, which is extremely probable, multiples in weight must also indicate multiples in volume, and vice versa; and the specific gravities, or absolute weights of all bodies in the gaseous state, must be multiples of the specific gravity or absolute weight of the first matter, because all bodies in a gaseous state which unite with one another, unite with reference to their volume. While it is true that Prout had at the time when he presented it, no real foundation for his ideas, more accurate work, while it proved his system to be invalid from a purely numerical standpoint, at the same time established the fact that the atomic weights of the lighter elements, on the hydrogen basis, are much closer to whole numbers than would be likely to result from any entirely accidental method of distribution.
