

The Zero Line

By J Kinkade

Jean Kinkade, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. When Mitch and Polly McKenna start a new life in Baltimore, they hope to leave the Military and their troubled pasts behind. Two years earlier, a Marine jet mysteriously crashed in the Arizona desert, and Mitch tries not to dwell on his role in the tragedy, but the bitter images of that horrific day are seared into his memory. The monotony of his new job--flying for a commercial airline--adds little toward his recovery, and soon he begins to spend more time with a bottle than with Polly. But Polly has a past she'd rather forget, too. Before marrying Mitch, she led a clandestine existence known only to a select few, which did not include him. After almost getting killed during a covert mission, she swore she'd never return. But with the unmistakable signs of boredom creeping into her far too comfortable suburban life, even danger seems a more appealing alternative. She's restless and in dire need of a profound change. But going back to that previous life is complicated. And dangerous. And then a...
