Between talking and his questions I filled out an agency blank, also an indemnity to the company, which I said was a mere matter of form, as the clause below distinctly stated that it was not collectable till the money was received from the sale of the fertilizer. Mr. Ackerman hesitated at this, but being urged that it was all right, finally signed it. I then gave him instructions how to sell the goods; said I would send printed matter enough to flood the county and would assist him in every way possible. I agreed to send a sample at once, filled out an order then and there, and then, suddenly looking at my watch, said, I must leave; and bidding my victim a pleasant good day was soon on the highway and driving northward. After going about a mile...
