New Bharatiya Book Corporation, 2013. Hardcover. Condition: New. 1st Edition. The Tattvanusandhanam is believed to be written by Mahadevanandasarasvati in the seventeenth century A.D. It is a small text of Advaita discipline comprising only four chapters. Here the characteristics of Advaita Vedanta have lucidly been discussed in simple language. The text brings to fore the fundamental oneness of individual self (jivatman) and Supreme Brahman (paramatman) in spite of their apparent differences as perceived by us. Moreover, while explaining maya, avidya, jnana, ajnana etc. it emphasizes the main tenets of Advaita philosophy such as self-realisation and liberation from the cycle of birth.
